

REMEMBER ... THE FUN DAYS AT CAMP, THE VOYAGE THERE WITH FRIENDS, YOUR LONE TROOP SWIM, THAT SCENIC HIKE, ALL THE SONGS AND STORIES AROUND THE CAMPFIRE?

Well, those memories and more are represented and preserved at the E. Urner Goodman Owasippe Museum located at the Administration Center of the Owasippe Scout Reservation, America's "Premier Scout Camp".

The building housing the museum was donated to the Chicago Area Council Boy Scouts by Blue Lake Township. It had served as their town hall since 1910, the same year that property on Crystal Lake was given to the Chicago Scouts through the generosity of the White Lake Chamber of Commerce...and that great Scout camping tradition continues today.

The museum is named after the late E. Urner Goodman who served as a Chicago Scout Executive and as Owasippe's reservation director in the late 20s. He is prominently known as the founder of the Order of the Arrow, the national fraternity of Scout honor campers.

All the wealth of earth and heaven

To the camp so dear to memory,
Hail, Owasippe!
